A. P. Wolfe & J. W. Härtling: The late Quaternary development of three ancient tarns on southwestern Cumberland Peninsula, Baffin Island, Arctic Canada: paleolimnological evidence from diatoms and sediment chemistry 1–18

J. A. Wolin: Late Holocene lake-level and lake development signals in Lower Herring Lake, Michigan 19–45

J. Risberg, P. Sandgren & E. Andrén: Early Holocene shore displacement and evidence of irregular isostatic uplift northwest of Lake Vänern, western Sweden 47–63

T. Korsman & H. J. B. Birks: Diatom-based water chemistry reconstructions from northern Sweden: a comparison of reconstruction techniques 65–77

H. C. Duthie, J-R. Yang, T. W. D. Edwards, B. B. Wolfe & B. G. Warner: Hamilton Harbour, Ontario: 8300 years of limnological and environmental change inferred from microfossil and isotopic analyses 79–97

M. Stephenson, J. Klaverkamp, M. Motycka, C. Baron & W. Schwartz: Coring artifacts and contaminant inventories in lake sediment 99–106

Note

I. D. Campbell: Power function for interpolating dates in recent sediment 107–110

Computer Applications to Paleolimnology

E. F. Stoermer: A simple, but useful, application of image analysis 111–113

Book reviews 115–117
